

Global Fellows Program

Friday, February 17, 2017 | 9:00 – 11:00 am
International Center Large Conference Room (Room 145)

Workshop 3: International Research Compliance

Learning Objectives

- Understand the research process(es) and protocols for international projects.
- Learn how to obtain research approval from foreign institutions.
- Review criteria related to export controls and how to determine when it applies to participants and their technology/resources.
- Become familiar with resources available for navigating research compliance for international projects

Agenda

9:00 – 9:15	Welcome, Introductions and Housekeeping <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Leonardo Villalón, Dean, University of Florida International Center• Sandra Russo, Director, Office of Global Research Engagement, UF International Center
9:15 – 10:00	Permits and Export Controls <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Karen Gillis, Associate Director of Research Services, Division of Environmental Health and Safety, Office of Business Affairs.• Mike Scian, Assistant Director, Conflict of Interest and Misconduct, Division of Research Compliance, Office of Research
10:00 -- 10:45	IRB and International Compliance Panel <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Ira Fischler, Chair of IRB-2 (UF Campus/Non-medical), Professor Emeritus of Psychology• Michael Mahoney, Director, Research Operations & Services, Office of Research Moderator: Sarah McKune, Assistant Professor, Department of Environmental and Global Health and Center for African Studies
10:50 – 11:00	Discussion with Fellows